Scott Held Orchestra To Play For Affair

Such a widespread program of entertainment has been planned for the evening, Olson stated, that the owners of Dance bids will be privileged to enjoy all the thrills of a news-room habitue on the wildest night of the year, in addition to the specially styled dance music of Scott Held's orchestra. Such an unprecedented entertainment program goes to those who attend the Press Dance Saturday as the equivalent of a free prize, Olson explained.

Door prize at the informal dance, as explained previously in the Spartan Daily, will be a free airplane ride in a plane piloted by Orchestra Maestro Scott Held himself.

Bids will be on sale in the quad at noon today and tomorrow and tickets will be sold at the doors of Scottish Rite Temple Saturday night. The dance will last from 9:00 to 1:00.

TRIBUTE

An open letter to Coach Bill Hubbard and the Spartan basketball team:

As you depart for the north to close the 1938 season against Humboldt State this week-end, we formally extend congratulations for your outstanding achievement of bringing the conference basketball championship to San Jose State college.

A team that can come back with the fire and confidence shown by all members of this Spartan squad, deserves far more recognition than we can give in this space.

Most of you will be back next year, but to Captain Frank Carroll, Willie Radunich, Walt McPherson, and Ralph Johnson, who have definitely ended their basketball careers, we say thanks for the last time.

By PATTY BLACKWOOD

When you attend a sale, don't you often say, "WELL, WHAT I WANT IS NEVER REDUCED"? I've said that little phrase many a time; however, your ship has come in at last, for starting FRIDAY and ENDING SATURDAY, M. BLUM & CO., San Jose's STYLE CENTER, are having their ANNUAL 20% off SALE. Only ONCE a year can such an opportunity betake San Jose. People wait all year round for such a SALE. THINK OF IT! So wire home to Mother and Dad immediately for that extra cash needed right at this time. Tell them that the choice of the NEW SPRING STOCK, WHICH WAS SELECTED IN NEW YORK by MAX BLUM, is yours at a 20% discount. EVERYTHING is NEW, nothing OLD is this SALE. Even Mr. Joe West couldn't object to the cuts while visiting BLUM'S FRIDAY. A few short figures here—

Final Step Of "College Swing"

IN HEEL BEATING STEP, heels are beat for two counts facing forward, then two counts facing each other, the feet striking between the partner's feet. Then repeat front for two counts, and side for two counts.

NOW BACK TO CHILDHOOD for a little patty cake and jingle to the rhythm of the music. The patty cake is alternated every four counts by some pranks such as nose tweaking, ear pulling, for four counts for four bars of music.

THE FLEA HOP is a sliding motion from side to side, the man's weight is on the right foot, his left pulls the right over, then alternate. The further the slide the better the couple.

Hold that pose, for here are the final steps of the craziest, swingiest dance of the year, "College Swing". All the campus is expected to Swing and Sway the journalistic way at the Press club's first Headline Hop which, according to rumors, is to be the most exciting dance of the century. . . In fact, the "College Swing" is so popular that the Phantom is to do it at the dance. The Phantom's terpsichorean ability is second only to that of the great Sarah "Pavlova" McClatchey.

This is something new, for the Fashion Bootery has always had shoes at several different ranges in price, but from now on, starting with this new stock the shoes will be one price, with the exception of SADDLE OXFORDS which will be $1.88. One of the newest of the Spring FOOTWEAR was a flat-tering SLIP-ON OPEN TOE SANDAL. This was of soft PERFORATED SUEDE with PATENT LEATHER HEEL AND TRIMMINGS—$3.00. They may be obtained in such outstanding brilliant shades as THRUSH, KELLY GREEN, CLOISONNE BLUE, LIPSTICK RED, and the everlasting NAVY.

Little POKE bonnets are again the thing for milady's EASTER chapeau. Years and years ago when our grandmothers were young, they, with neatly scrubbed innocent faces, wore them. If you are just a sweet co-ed trying to get around, try one of these cute little hats tied under the chin with contrasting color lining the brim.

Committees Selected For K.P. Presentation Of Original Operetta

Committees for the operetta, "Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary" which is to be presented by the Kindergarten-Primary group at the end of the quarter, were selected this week. This original musical which is now in the midst of production will be given in the Little Theater.

Dances are being planned by Florence Barret and Bettie Lewis. Olga Bryden and Sarah Blakeley are working on costumes. Stage set and properties are to be done by Barbara Gates and Janice Jarvis with the assistance of Peter Magrone. The story, based on the Contrary Mary nursery rhyme, has been written by Geraldine Lorenz, Margaret James and Olga Bryden.

The entire class has cooperated in doing the musical numbers. The cast which will be announced at a later date consists of Contrary Mary, the Magis Wind, and villainous Gopher who turns out to be an angel at heart in the finale. The Sun, a chorus of Pretty Maids made up of Pansy, Lily, Hollyhock and Daffy-down-dilly and two raindrops.

SPARTAN BOXERS TRADE BLOWS WITH S.F.U. DONS TONIGHT

Spartan Baseball Team Meets Oakland Pro Club Today; Game Shifted To East Bay Stadium

Carpenter To Open On Mound For State

Contrary as published before, the San Jose Spartan baseballers will travel to Oakland today to meet the Oakland Oaks of the Pacific coast league at the Oakland home ball park instead of Graham Field in San Jose as listed in yesterday's Daily.

Coach Bishop received word from the Oakland officials yesterday morning asking for the change, and arrangements for the game to be played in the bay city's park at 2:30 sharp this afternoon was made.

ROOKIE TEAM

Little is known of the strength of the Oakland club since the team will probably be composed of rookies trying-out for a chance to "break into" professional ball. However, "Dutch" Zwilling will probably want to give some of his regulars an opportunity to hit some "college pitching", and Coach Bishop and his horseholders will be in for a tough contest.

Bishop stated he would probably start Art Carpenter on the mound, due to his excellent performance in the Stanford tilt. If the towering twirler pitches as well against the Oakland club as he did against the Indians, the east bay boys will be in for a stiff fracas.

Other changes in the Spartan line-up will be at first and short. Pink Garcia will cavort in McPherson's place due to "Mac" traveling north with the basketball club. Harvey Rhodes may get first call at the shortstop position.

The players that will make the trip to Oakland this afternoon are: Captain Tony Martinez, Art Carpenter, Leroy Zimmerman, Dino Morati, Elbert Garcia, Manny Sanchez, Jim Cranford, Jack Riordan, Harvey Rhodes, Jim Luque, Haven Smith, George Haney, and Bill Freitas.

Tennis Opener To Be Played Tomorrow

The San Jose State-San Mateo junior college tennis meet, scheduled for the San Jose Tennis club courts yesterday afternoon, was postponed until tomorrow afternoon at 2 p.m., it was learned from George Quetin, varsity manager.

The reason given for the postponement was that several members of both teams had important laboratory sessions on Wednesday. The twice-postponed tilt will be the season's opener for the locals.

FRESHMAN QUINT DOWNS SAN FRANCISCO STATE FIVE, 34-31

Tossing the lead back and forth between them throughout the first half the San Jose yearling quint maintained a second period edge over the San Francisco State 145 pound team last night that left them on the winning end of a 34 to 31 prelim to the home varsity game.

The first half saw the two teams match point for point with the lead changing hands with practically every basket sunk. Collins, playing at center for the City five, was mainly responsible in upholding the San Francisco banner in the initial period, accounting for twelve

Sportlighting the Spartans

By BEN JOHNSON

Basketball season is over as far as conference competition is concerned. All that is left is a pleasant little jaunt up into the wilds of northern California for a two game series with the Humboldt State college Lumberjacks. Last season, the green clad cagers from the wilds of Arcata divided a pair of games with the Spartans.

The first night saw the local cagers sparked by Captain Mel DeSelle and Bill Crawford go to town, but on Saturday night it was a different story. Playing without the services of Ivor Thomas, the Spartans took quite a wallop. A combination of Thornton to Givens under the basket proved the undoing of San Jose. The Spartans will be out for revenge on their junket this week-end which will be made by automobile, by the way, instead of railroad. The tracks have been washed away.

Now that the conference crown has been safely won and stowed away by Captain Frank Carroll and his teammates, it will probably be safe for this writer to pick an all-conference team. Or two if you will.

First Team F. Second Team
Gus Kotta (SJ) F. Radunich (USF)
Giannini (SC) F. Carroll (SJ)
Nelson (SC) C. Radunich (SJ)
Thomas (SJ) G. Heffernan (SC)
Meitz (SM) G. Andrade (SM)

The first team wasn't hard with the exception of the center position. San Jose's Radunich was right up there battling with Nelson in all three of the State-Bronco contests, but Nelson seemed to have a slight edge.

At forwards Gus Kotta and "Hot Toddy" Giannini were the class of the conference. No other pair could come close. They were by far and away the two most con-

SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1938

SPARTAN QUINT BEATS SAN FRANCISCO STATE CAGE TEAM 43 TO 40

Credit another whirlwind victory to Coach Bill Hubbard's Spartan cagers who won a photo-finish from a San Francisco State quintet last night in Spartan Pavilion. The newly crowned champions of the Northern California Intercollegiate Basketball Conference closed with a rush in the final six minutes to ease out a 43-40 win over the visiting 'Gators from the bay city. S. F. State led 24-17 at half-time.

After trailing all the way, the San Jose five "got hot" in the closing minutes to win the last home game of the season. Coach Hubbard and his team leave for Arcata this afternoon to play a two-game series with Humboldt State on Friday and Saturday.

Joe Sanz, slim forward for San Francisco, nearly garnered a victory for the visitors. Sanz, who tallied 22 points when San Jose trounced the bay city team 58-39 earlier in the season, accounted for of the opposition counters. Pyle and Bachman playing at guard and forward respectively for San Jose were the main strength on the home wall. They kept the yearlings well in the running by closing the first half with a score of 18 to 17 in favor of the Gate City quint.

Shortly after the half time period Collins went out of the game for San Francisco on fouls after he had added one more point to his total to retire as high point man of the game with 13 points.

WIDE LEAD

From here on the yearling momentum increased until the breach in the score widened to eight points in their favor.

The frosh maintained this lead until the final minutes of the game when the San Francisco men in a wild attempt to even the affair

21 digits last night. Walt McPherson was high for the Spartans with 11 while Ralph Johnson scored nine points.

San Francisco had the situation well in hand until the closing seven minutes when a collision between Sanz and Hammond left those two players dazed. The Spartans came from behind a 37-30 lead to forge into a narrow lead.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

By DAN O'NEILL

George Rotholtz and Bill Wagner are the two finalists for the intramural ping pong championship of Washington Square. Rotholtz clinched honors in the A division of the tournament over a week ago, but Wagner fought it out with Bob Ward in the B class and defeated him in a sterling battle recently.

Rotholtz, as defending champ, is slightly favored to defeat Wagner, but there are those who believe the latter has shown better form during tournament play and will extend the champ to the limit. The boys will meet within the next day or two in the Student Union to determine the titlist.

Soft Ball On Tap For Next Quarter

Sign-up for softball competition for the spring quarter should be done in the near future, according to an announcement for the Physical Education department.

The time has been set for noon on Tuesdays and Thursdays on the San Carlos street turf. It will be a regular physical education class and 1/2 unit of credit will be given.

Lowell Todd Enters Long Beach Relays; Return To State Probable

Sunseri, Parr, Vasconcellos, Larson, Presley Represent Spartans In South

Lowell Todd, college record holder of the javelin throw mark, and one of the most outstanding track athletes ever to attend San Jose State college, will enter the Long Beach Relays on March 5th wearing the colors of Sparta, but will be officially entered as an unattached athlete.

Todd started school this quarter, but was forced to drop out because of sickness. However, Todd, in a letter to track coach "Tiny" Hartranft, asked to be entered in the meet, and stated that he will in all probability be returning to San Jose for the spring quarter.

NATIONAL CHAMPION

Numerous nationally classed meets were triumphs for the Pacific Grove spear thrower last season. He won the National AAU championship held in Berkeley, took first place in the Junior PAA meet held at San Jose at which time he set a new school record of 219 feet. Other competition included a second place at the Drake Relays, and third place at the Fresno Relays.

Tony Sunseri, who gave Stanford and the Olympic club pole vaulters quite a scare at the recent indoor meet, has been entered in the Long Beach event along with Al Parr in the broad jump, "Tickle" Vasconcellos in the broad jump and high jump, Verne Larson in the broad jump and high hurdles, and Don Presley in the shot put and discus.

13 FEET FOR SUNSERI

Sunseri has distinct possibilities of attaining a height of 13 feet or more in this meet, as it was just by the flick of his broad chest that he knocked the bar off at this height at the indoor affair.

WREN TANGLES WITH MACE IN FEATURE BOUT

Paul Tara Fights At 139 lbs. Against Somonte

By WALT HECOX

"Little man, you'll have a busy night", is what Spartan boxing fans are saying to Dale Wren who will receive his toughest test under heavy artillery tonight when he enters the ring against Jim Mace, USF bantamweight, in the opening battle of the boxing meet between San Jose State college and the Dons.

Little Jimmy has long been the man to beat in the bantamweight division of Pacific Coast intercollegiate boxing. In spite of the fact that the Don captain has no KO punch, he is streamlined and knows just a wee bit more than everything about ring warfare.

Wren on the other hand is a hard hitting youngster with comparatively little experience. In spite of his recent loss to Don Bessinger of Washington State, Wren is far from out of the running for a Pacific Coast Intercollegiate championship. Observers claim that the battle could have easily gone in the other direction. It was the second loss in Wren's career.

At 139 pounds, local fans will see Paul Tara, spectacular bantamweight, in action for the first time this year. Tara lost two questionable decisions during his recent trip to the north. It is a well known fact among those who follow the ring that a boxer must win by more than a little over a local favorite in anybody's home town. Tara will meet Dino Somonte, a Don sophomore.

A schedule of bouts follow:
SAN JOSE STATE vs. U.S.F.
Dale Wren vs. Jim Mace—129
Paul Tara vs. Dino Somonte—139
Gene Fisk vs.
Jim Kincaid vs. Dan Bendetti—149
Bill Bolich vs. Jim O'Keefe—159
Pete Bolich vs. N. Radovich—169
Byron Lanphear vs.
Ed White vs. Bill Bolster—179
Don Walker vs. Ersenlaeur—hwt.

Spartan Mermen Meet Stanford Saturday

San Jose swimming fans will get a chance on Saturday evening to see what is probably the foremost swimming team on the coast in action, when Captain Dave Rider and his band of war hooping Indians from Stanford meet the Spartan splashes.

Well fortified in every event, the Spartans are given no chance at all of stopping the Cardinals. Last year a combined frosh and varsity team came within seven points of turning back the invaders, but this year there will be two dual meets run off at the same time—varsity and frosh.

The only event that seems to be cinched for the Spartans is the 150 yard backstroke. Captain Howard Withcombe will be favored over Marshall Letteau and Hal Weatherbe in the dorsal event, unless the captain's shoulder takes a turn for the worse. He has been having trouble with it since before the Hayward Championships.

Without Martin Wempe in the free style events, Captain Rider and Winfield Needham look to be one-two in the 220 and 440.

Y Members Hold Supper Meeting Tuesday Evening

Pastor To Be Speaker At Association Gathering

With the theme of "Around the World with the Student Y", the final "Y" Association supper meeting of the quarter will be held on March 1 from 5:30 to 7:30 in the Rose Room of the city YWCA.

Speaker for the evening will be the Rev. J.H. Bennett of Campbell, and Englishman of "keen intellect and a very pleasing personality", according to Miss Mary Hill of the YWCA. His topic will be "Christian Youth and World-Wide Problems".

There will be folk music of foreign countries for the Community Sing. The imaginary scene will be set in Geneva, Switzerland, at the World Student Christian Federation headquarters. Appropriate table decorations will carry out the theme.

The price of the dinner is 26 cents. Tickets must be purchased by Monday noon in the Y room.

Scandinavians Sing Saturday

Three hundred male singers, Swedish, Norwegian, and Danish, will be presented Saturday night at the Civic Auditorium by the Scandinavian Singing Society of San Jose. The program will be a combined concert and ball.

Carlton Lindgren, a member of the "Musketeers" and also of the San Jose singing society sponsoring the program, is the campus representative for the affair. Tickets, which sell at the door for 75 cents, may be purchased from Lindgren for 50 cents.

NOTICE

As yet I have no date for the Press club dance; and I'd kinda like to go.—The Printer.

Voice Classes Give Program March 4

Students of the College vocal department will give a voice recital Friday evening, March 4, at 8 o'clock in the Little Theater, directed by Miss Maurine Thompson, voice instructor.

Made up of solo and ensemble numbers, the program includes selections from two of Puccini's operas, "La Boheme" and "La Tosca" and concludes with "Nocturne" by Cui which features a chorus of nine students.

Jimmy Walsh

WALSH BAND TO PLAY FRIDAY

Anson Weeks once persuaded young Jimmy Walsh to play in his orchestra instead of being a salesman, and now Jimmy Walsh has an orchestra of his own which appears tomorrow night at the Civic Auditorium.

Walsh and his orchestra are playing for the dance tomorrow night under the auspices of the committee of the Forty and Eight of the American Legion. With the orchestra will be the "Walsh Singing Trio", consisting of Jimmy Walsh, Wes Gordon, and Peter Filling.

Dancing will be from 8:30 to 1:00 and popular prices will prevail, according to those in charge of arrangements.

REED CLASSES GIVE CONCERT TODAY AT NINE

Outstanding Players To Perform In Ensemble

Music students from the advanced reed classes will give a concert today at nine o'clock in Room 1 of the Music building under Mr. Thomas Eagan's direction.

Taken from the outstanding members of the reed classes, the students participating will be formed into three ensembles. This program will institute a series of like concerts which, Mr. Eagan says, the department plans to present each quarter.

The program includes the "Grand Trio for Three Clarinets" by Bouffil, the "Petit Quartet" by W. A. Crosse, and Artot's "Four Short Quartets".

The public, students, and instructors are invited to attend the morning program.

San Jose State Honored At Rio Del Mar Friday

It will be San Jose State college night at Rio Del Mar Friday.

Going from San Jose to lead the Big Apple for Sparta will be Jack Marsh, Joy Erbenraut, Bob Free, Frances Scott, Virginia and Bill Jennings.

Music will be swung by Joseph Sudy, well known coast-to-coast band leader.

The popular resort honors one college each Friday night with the semi-formal affairs. Dinner is $1.50 a plate, with no cover charge.

Delta Phi Upsilon Hears Dr. Kaucher

Dr. Dorothy Kaucher addressed Delta Phi Upsilon, honorary Kindergarten-Primary group, at a meeting last night in the home of Mrs. Paul Rudolph, a former member, at 310 Tilman street.

Dr. Kaucher spoke on her travels in the Orient. The meeting was a special one which honored Delta Phi alumnae. It consisted of a short business session following which refreshments were served by the hostess.

Behind The News

"Indian nationalists can reach the British public only through the American newspaper," Dr. Mahanam Brahmachari, Hindu monk, told San Jose State college students assembled in the "Behind the News" class Tuesday morning.

The speaker had been introduced by Dr. William Poytress, head of the Social Science department.

Strict regulations limit freedom of the press, of speech and of assembly in India, the speaker told his audience, citing an incident where 2000 men, women and children were killed and wounded by British soldiers for unlawful assembly.

In addition, he stated, there is an active spy system and a British-controlled system of "public" education which only serves those who are able to pay tuition.

Appearing before the group in his native costume, Dr. Brahmachari wore a turban and shawl of home-spun, hand-blocked cotton—a distinctive dress of Indian nationalists, who are boycotting English goods. Beads fashioned from a "holy plant" symbolized his self-dedication to the religious life.

Speaking before a college audience during the noon hour, the monk traced the history of the Hindu beliefs and compared them with Christianity.
